Mr. E. H. Knoche
Deputy Director of Central Intelligence
Washington, DC 20505

Dear Hank:

We all appreciated your attendance at our meeting today. Your review of the state of the Agency was well received, as you were able to judge. The CIRA is a group sympathetic to the aims and purposes of U. S. intelligence, although its purposes are confined to social and fraternal activity. We firmly believe that there's no conflict between the two.

Hopefully, we'll again have the benefit of your presence at one of our meetings in the near future. You know that you'll always be welcome and we'll let you know of our comings and goings so that you may join us when your schedule permits.

With every good wish for all success,

Sincerely yours,

President, CIRA
